Celebrating Our Incredible Volunteers

During National Volunteers Week, our community came together to honour the incredible individuals who give their time, energy, and compassion to Barossa Village. It was more than just a celebration; it was a powerful reminder of the impact our volunteers make every single day.

The Volunteers Luncheon was a highlight, filled with warmth, laughter, connection and yes, a few tears. The good kind. The kind that comes from heartfelt gratitude, shared memories, and the deep bonds that form through service.

We were privileged to hear from members of our leadership team, a moving address from Robert Martin, CEO of Lifeline Regional SA & Far West NSW, and a touching story from one of our own volunteers with a remarkable connection to the founding of Lifeline.

To each and every volunteer: THANK YOU. You are the heart of Barossa Village, and we are so grateful for all that you do.

Hello & Welcome

Message From Our CEO Ben Hall

The celebrations have continued across May, with the month beginning with Mother's Day, then International Nurses Day, and wrapping up with National Volunteer Week. If you are a mother, nurse or volunteer my heartfelt thanks; I can't imagine a world without any of you.

On the 24-May we recognised all our volunteers with a luncheon at the Vine Inn Hotel. Volunteers are the lifeblood of the Regions. Their commitment supports the delivery of services that enables others to live and thrive in their communities. We hosted close to 60 volunteers and various members of staff that coordinate the programs that mean so much to our community. At the event we celebrated the contribution of every volunteer, and acknowledged those that reached 5-, 10-, 15- and 20-year service milestones and once again I say thank you to all our wonderful volunteers.

This month has also seen us finalise our conversations with Lifeline in its management of the Barossa Village Op Shop, with a change over date currently set as 1-July. It's taken nearly 12 months since Dr Bill Gransbury of the Enhance Barossa Mental Health Steering Group connected me with Dr Rob Martin of Lifeline. Since then, we have worked with purpose with our volunteers to understand the opportunities and impacts of the changeover informing our conversations with Lifeline. I am personally immensely proud to have been part of this process; establishing what is a first in the nation collaboration between Lifeline and a community owned organisation, and we are excited to see what it yields for the Barossa Community.

The outcomes of the Federal Election are now known, and with it we see the appointment of the Hon Sam Rae MP as the Minister for Aged Care and Seniors. Mr Rae's appointment along with Ms Liz Heffren-Webb as the new Aged Care Quality Safety Commission Commissioner represent a changing of the guard to herald in the outcomes of the reform under the new Aged Care Act 2024. I've been fortunate enough to attend presentations from both and the message looking forward is clear: one of support, advocacy and collaboration with providers with the expectations that providers will continue with their best efforts to provide the highest possible level of care.

As an organisation we are busy preparing for the transition into the new year and managing the changes arising through reform. It's fair to say that there will be a lot of information over the coming weeks. Our approach will be to keep things as simple as possible and be available to find out answers to any questions that you may have. Please remember that we are here for you, and we will help where we can.

Take care
Ben Hall

Our Heart for Quality Care

Palliative Care

During May we recognised National Palliative Care Week as a time to reflect, talk about plans and appreciate the care that's provided.

In aged care, we often witness some of the most profound moments in a person's life not just beginnings, but endings too. At Barossa Village, we're reminded daily of the power of presence, compassion, and dignity in the final chapter of life.

As we recognise National Palliative Care Week, we invite our community to reflect on what matters most at the end of life.

This year's theme "What's your plan?".

A call to each of us to consider how we wish to be cared for, and how we support the people we love through life's most tender transitions.

Palliative care is about more than medical support; it's about connection, respect, and making space for grief, comfort and choice. It's about honouring a person's life while supporting their final days with empathy and grace.

We honour not only the individuals and families we've walked alongside but also the dedicated team who provide this care with warmth and respect. Their role is a quiet, powerful one — and it reminds us all of the value of talking early, planning ahead, and embracing every moment we can with the people we love.

In continuing our support and advocacy for quality care, Barossa Village has been approached by COTA to assist in recruitment of participants in a statewide provision of palliative care services study, being coordinated by the University of Adelaide.

If you are eligible and willing to participate it's a chance to have your voices elevated by sharing your experience to help shape services. Scan the QR code to find out more.

Mother's Day High Tea

The Mother's Day High Tea is becoming a beloved event at the Residency.

Mothers are treated to delicious desserts and sumptuous savouries all served on two tiered plates and tea out of fine china. The Wellbeing Team decorated the room beautifully and everyone had a great time.

A special mention must go to Tash and the kitchen team for the amazing food.

Mother's Day High Tea is a lovely way to spend time with Mum and spoil her in the way she deserves.

SALA is coming!

Residents of the art persuasion are getting ready for SALA. The team have got together to discuss this year's theme – Water.

Ideas are flowing and the team have settled on ideas for the Residency Art room and Lodge display.

We have a book club

The Art room is not the only room that will be revitalised at the residency. A new book club is about to start. In consultation with some of the book loving residents, a library is about to be opened in the EF area. The Wellbeing Team are working on getting new books in with different formats, large print, audio books and newspapers.

We are working with the Nuriootpa Public Library for the book of the month.

Here is Dot enjoying the newspaper in the new library area.

From Our Community

Meet Lyle Green

Lyle volunteered for the Lyndoch CFS (Country Fire Service) from 2013 until 2020. The brigade has around 30–40 members, and Lyle recently attended the 50th Volunteer Dinner for Lyndoch CFS, held at the new Lyndoch Oval facilities.

He began volunteering in 2013 after retiring and finding he had more time on his hands. Lyle was drawn to the CFS because he's community-minded and wanted to give back. He has held many community volunteer roles throughout the Barossa.

At the CFS, Lyle served as a Communications Officer. He worked behind the scenes in the radio room, calling out trucks when needed and occasionally attending callouts to help with traffic control.

During his time with the CFS, Lyle undertook various training opportunities. These included courses in workplace communication, operating communication systems, working in a team, following defined OH&S policies and procedures, and maintaining safety at incident scenes.

When the alarm sounded at the Lyndoch station, Lyle would head in to meet the team and manage radio communications. Once the trucks were dispatched, he stayed in contact to relay messages. Over time, the communication systems used by the trucks improved significantly, which he saw as a great advancement.

After 12 months, Lyle took on an additional volunteer role as the Finance Coordinator for the Barossa CFS Group, which includes six brigades across the region.

Lyle enjoyed the camaraderie of the CFS and feels he achieved what he set out to do; contributing to his community in a meaningful way. He's proud of what he's done and feels a strong sense of accomplishment for having made a positive impact.

Annual Christmas Dance in a Fictitious Old Folks Home

No limousines arrive at the door,
Instead, mobility aids squeak across the floor,
How are you going Jean? Not so bad Fred,
Though with my back I should have stayed in bed,
Bill is there with some type of stain on his tie,
And old Joe has forgotten to do up his fly,
It's quiet for a while so they can recover from their nana nap,
But then the DJ puts on a record and they all cheer and clap.

With dentures clicking they breakout in song,
It's time for everybody to dance and sing along,
With songs from Elvis, Cliff, Johnny O'Keefe and Buddy Holly,
They danced to "Jailhouse Rock" and "Good Golly Miss Molly",
Over tea and bikkies, they sang "Sadie the Cleaning Lady",
Most think if only we could do this daily,
Bob with his new wig askew,
Spins Doreen who lost her shoe.

The DJ plays "Let's do the twist",
It's one dance nobody missed,
For ladies dancing in high heels was quite a feat,
Now they put on comfy slippers for tied feet,
They wondered who would play Santa today,
But Paddy Irish voice gave it away,
They can't wait to go to next year's dance again,
Because laughter's the cure and joy they all obtain.

Brenton's metro"gnome"

Brenton carved this cheeky little gnome just for fun and decided it belonged on top of Robyn's metronome.

Now he keeps time with our Wellbeing team!

In case you're wondering, a metronome is a device that helps musicians keep a steady beat and of course in our Residency, music is a big part of everyday.

Thanks Brenton!

- "Enjoyed doing exercises together."
- "We have great instructors."

"Hydro class is my favourite time of the week - I love the feeling of belonging to the group and the fun and laughter we enjoy as well as the exercise and strengthening of our legs, arms, balancing, rescuing ourselves from a fall and generally feeling more secure in our home and gardens."

We have also bonded as a group and go on coffee afternoons every couple of months, we are friends now. When I was very young I was afraid of being in a pool, not sure of the reason but now I can confidently go into the middle of the pool to do whatever our instructor encourages us to try."

Here are some participants feedback from Fitness For Life:

" I have been doing the program for almost 6 months and I am very pleased with my progress. I started the program because I wanted to improve my balance, as I have poor posture due to round shoulders which is a hereditary issue. I also have an in-balance with my ear and I cannot walk in a straight line. My right knee also gives me issues from time to time.

Dianne and her team have been most helpful, making sure I am doing the exercises correctly and praising me when they see an improvement. I am definitely steadier on my feet and my knee has improved as well. I thoroughly recommend this program and the people who run it."

"A great program that gives you the incentive and motivation to do the exercises and show you areas to improve and how to do it.

I started the program to keep up my fitness in a friendly environment more suited to my age and that I could do with my wife. I have seen improvement with my balance and wellbeing. Dianne and her helpers are an inspiration as are other participants. I thoroughly recommend this program. Thank you for providing it."
